MEMPHIS, TN (November 11, 2013) – Fisher Phillips has announced the inclusion of attorneys Jeff Weintraub, Craig Cowart, and Jaklyn Wrigley in Mid-South Super Lawyers, which covers Tennessee, Arkansas, and Mississippi. Weintraub has been selected for inclusion in Super Lawyers for the seventh consecutive year, and Cowart for the second consecutive year. Wrigley receives "Rising Star" honors for the first year.

Super Lawyers is a rating service of outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. The selection process is multi-phased and includes independent research, peer nominations, and peer evaluations.

Jeff Weintraub is the regional managing partner in the Memphis office of Fisher Phillips. He is a trial attorney who has represented employers in more than 50 jury and bench trials in both the private and public sectors in employment-harassment/discrimination and retaliatory discharge ("whistleblower") lawsuits. Craig Cowart is a partner in the Memphis office. For nearly two decades, he has represented the interests of employers in a wide array of employment matters, including labor- and employment-related litigation, arbitrations, and administrative proceedings. Jaklyn Wrigley is an associate in the Gulfport office. She represents employers throughout Mississippi in state and federal courts.
