The article, "Hirozawa's NLRB Tenure Remembered For Progressive Action," featured in Law360, highlighted National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) member Kent Y. Hirozawa's recent departure from the board.

Steve Bernstein discussed immediate impact Hirozawa's departure will have on the remaining three board members.

"It seems to me, all things being equal, it might slightly hamper the volume of cases they're able to churn out," said Steve. "I don't know if it will have a major impact, but it will have an impact."
