In the interview, "U.S. Businesses Rebuke Trump Over Immigration Ban," with NPR, attorney Kim Thompson discusses President Trump's immigration ban and what it means for businesses and travelling employees.

THOMPSON: Definitely if you're from one of these seven countries on the list in the executive order, we're recommending no travel at all.

THOMPSON: I do feel that we might end up with other countries reacting to this, not just the seven countries that we're dealing with, but other countries too that start taking actions so that American citizens couldn't travel to those countries as freely as we have in the past.
