

Coronavirus in the Workplace: Be Proactive, But Don't Panic

News

1.27.20

News outlets are preoccupied with alarming updates about the spread of coronavirus – including several cases identified in the United States – and employers are left wondering what steps they can take to prevent the spread and protect their workforce. In conversations with SHRM, Howard Mavity discussed what employers should keep in mind during the early stages of this outbreak especially in terms of employee travel.
