In January 2021, President-Elect Biden can begin taking actions that will immediately impact employers. Although it is not easy to predict exactly what actions Biden will take once he gains control of the executive branch, this webinar will provide employers a discussion of changes that will most likely come about in the areas of workplace safety, the National Labor Relations Board, the Future of Work, wage and hour, pay equity and leave laws. Join the Fisher Phillips Louisville office attorneys for an important virtual discussion as they walk through what developments to expect.

COVID-19 Employer Update: Vaccines and Litigation Trends

Date: February 10, 2021

Time: 2:00 – 3:00 pm EST

Register Here

With several COVID-19 vaccines already being rolled out, now is the time to consider how to implement a successful vaccination policy. As vaccines become available, priority will likely go to health care workers, the elderly, and other at-risk individuals. This webinar will discuss vaccination policies and highlight how to handle employees who refuse and if an incentive program will work. Litigation as a result of COVID-19 has also been on the rise in the last few months. The Louisville attorneys will also discuss employment litigation trends that employers must be aware of and how you can be proactive.
