

An Emergency Webinar for an Emergency Standard: What All Employers Need to Know About OSHA's New Pandemic Workplace Safety Rules

Event

6.11.21

2:00 PM — 3:00 PM EST

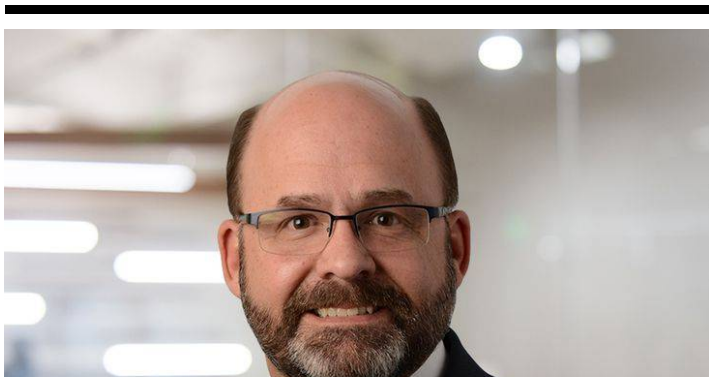

The pandemic might seem like it's in its last days, but today's news means it won't be truly over for employers anytime soon. Businesses across the country will soon be facing new COVID-19 workplace safety obligations thanks to OSHA's long-awaited Emergency Temporary Standard (ETS), landing in employers' laps on June 10. The Fisher Phillips COVID-19 Taskforce will give you all you need to know in this timely and interactive webinar, answering all of your questions and providing you with practical takeaways that you can immediately put into place to ensure compliance.

- What special rules will be put into place for healthcare employers?
- What do all employers need to know about masking and social distancing rules?
- What effect will a vaccinated workforce have on your protocols?
- What should you do to minimize your chances of being visited by an OSHA inspector, and what can you do to maximize your chances of a successful inspection?

If you have any questions, please contact Abby Tasman.

Fisher Phillips is committed to providing access to all of our events for disabled attendees. If you need an accommodation to participate in this event, please give us three business days advance notice prior to the scheduled event by contacting Abby Tasman. Thank you.
