

Entrepreneur Interviews California Partner on Monitoring Remote Workers

News
9.06.21

In an interview with Entrepreneur Magazine, Usama Kahf discusses what employers should consider before monitoring remote workers. While employers should take into account how such policies can impact morale, Usama advises that employers should also be mindful of privacy laws, which can vary by state. “Employees generally have an expectation of privacy in their use of personal computers and phones unless a different company policy has been communicated to them in writing.”
