Establishing a COVID-19 Testing Program for your Workplace

Monday, November 15, 2021: 2:00 – 3:00 p.m. EST

You might think that the vaccine mandate option is not for you and would rather establish a weekly testing regimen to comply with the ETS. You're not alone. A recent FP Flash Survey revealed that 43% of employers were considering taking this route. But there are some significant logistical, financial, and administrative hurdles you'll need to consider before making this decision. Join leaders from our Vaccine Subcommittee to walk through the pros and cons of testing your workforce, and dive deep into our seven-step plan for implementing a COVID-19 testing program.

This webinar series also includes:

Questions and Answers about the OSHA ETS

Tuesday, November 16, 2021: 2:00 – 3:00 p.m. EST

We'll review the most common questions we've received from employers about the OSHA emergency rule that will require you to either mandate the COVID-19 vaccine or implement weekly testing, and spend 60 minutes answering as many we can. We'll touch on topics such as how to determine your company size, effective date of the ETS depending on your location, expected legal challenges, how remote employees should be treated, and much more. Join leaders from our Workplace Safety and Vaccine Subcommittee groups for this exclusive webinar as they field your questions and provide the practical guidance you've come to expect from Fisher Phillips throughout the pandemic.

Handling Religious and Medical Accommodation Requests

Wednesday, November 17, 2021: 2:00 – 3:00 p.m. EST

Perhaps no single subject related to vaccines has drawn more attention – and created more confusion for employers – than handling religious and medical accommodation requests. Join leaders from our Vaccine Subcommittee to spend time examining employer rights and obligations when it comes to this critical area. You'll leave with a firm understanding of the areas you need to examine before taking any steps and a practical step-by-step guide on how to navigate accommodation requests.
