

Los Angeles Business Journal Names Hannah Sweiss Among its 2022 Women of Influence

News
4.20.22

Hannah Sweiss was recently named among the Los Angeles Business Journal's 2022 Women of Influence, a special publication that highlights outstanding female attorneys blazing their own trail in the region.

Hannah is profiled for her critical work during the COVID-19 pandemic as she served as a key advisor to employers across the country. Over the past two years, she continued to stay up-to-speed on the ever-changing legal landscape that employers have faced and became a go-to source for guidance on safety protocols and vaccine policies. The profile highlights her dedication to keeping up with the changing federal, state, and local laws by which employers were required to adhere.
