

Trading on Trade Secrets: Policies and Procedures for Guarding Against Employee Misuse of Confidential Company Information

Event

8.18.22

9:00 AM — 10:00 AM PST

With a record number of employees in California now working remotely, it is becoming increasingly difficult for employers to protect their most valuable assets – their confidential and trade secret information. No longer secure behind lock and key, one click from a careless or disgruntled employee can put a company out of business faster than you can say “cease and desist!”

Please join us as Fisher Phillips attorney William R.H. Mosher discusses how employers can protect their company’s confidential and trade secret information against employee misuse and discusses what legal remedies an employer has when an employee copies, uses or discloses that information in violation of its policies.

This program is being submitted for HRCI and SHRM credit.
