In an interview with Law360, Kathleen Caminiti shares her insight on President Biden's overtime updates, which include addressing the salary threshold under the FLSA. She is tapped for insight on the DOL's forthcoming rule regarding the FLSA threshold which has left attorneys wondering what is to come. Kathleen explains that raising the salary threshold could mean increased costs, which leads to employers looking to save on labor expenses. "It may also lead to employers reclassifying individuals who were exempt management to nonexempt positions," she added.
