

Charles Caulkins Named Among the South Florida Power 100

News

1.23.23

Charles Caulkins has been named to City & State Florida's South Florida Power 100. This list showcases the many people who make Florida's Gold Coast a focus not only for the state's power network but nationally as well. As the former chair of the Florida Chamber of Commerce, Charles is profiled for his continued efforts to navigate the ever-changing landscape of Florida's employment laws. He is referred to as a preeminent resource for his clients on labor relations, including management training and union matters. Charles' profile emphasizes his efforts to counsel clients on policy issues, like Florida's proposed Local Business Protection Act.
