

Law 360 Covers The Arrival of Trade Secrets Pro Scott Oberlander

News
8.17.23

In an interview with Law360, Scott Oberlander discusses his decision to join Fisher Phillips because the firm provided the perfect platform for him to both meet existing clients' needs and develop business going forward. "In Philadelphia alone, there are nearly 15 attorneys who regularly, if not exclusively, work in my practice area, and I felt that having such a deep bench of talented lawyers within this area greatly benefits the firm's clients and ultimately mine."

The arrival of Scott continues a run of growth for the Philadelphia office, which has more than doubled the location's number of attorneys since it moved into a new office downtown in 2020.
