Fisher Phillips, an international employment law firm representing employers, is pleased to announce that Elyse Gorney has joined the firm as an associate in the Tampa office.

Before joining Fisher Phillips, Elyse was a labor and employment associate at a regional law firm, where she advised clients on compliance with state and federal laws in labor and employment and worked with clients in crafting and administering workplace policies and procedures. At Fisher Phillips, Elyse will continue representing employers in workplace law disputes and will also provide companies with counseling and advice on all aspects of their employment relationships.

Elyse earned her J.D. from Boston University School of Law. During law school, she served as the director of the Albers Moot Court Competition and was awarded the Best Brief Award. She also served as a member of the Student Affairs Advisory Board. Elyse earned her B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania.

Elyse joins a growing team in Florida, including Emeraude Lerebours, who joined in Tampa earlier this year, and Adanna Ferguson and Sarah Leon, who recently joined the firm's Fort Lauderdale office. Fisher Phillips' Florida presence spans three major cities, where the firm's attorneys help employers navigate the changing employment equation from coast to coast. With more than 30 attorneys across the state leveraging the firm's technology-driven approach, Fisher Phillips partners with companies to achieve their business objectives, anticipate potential disruption, and provide the legal guidance to navigate and resolve the workplace matters critical to their success. The firm's Florida offices are also home to leaders of Fisher Phillips' national Labor Relations Practice Group and Education industry team, as well as a member of the firm's Management Committee.
