

Fisher Phillips Welcomes Employment Litigator Ladan Shelechi in Irvine

News
5.20.24

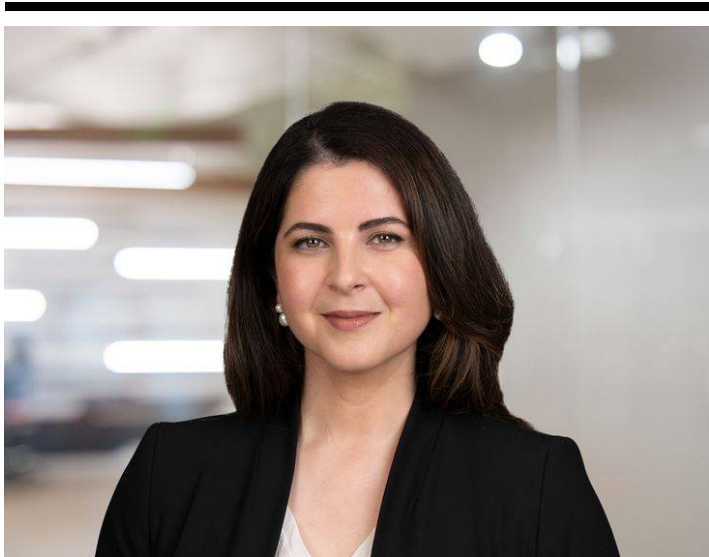

Fisher Phillips, an international labor and employment law firm representing employers, is pleased to announce that Ladan Shelechi has joined the firm as Of Counsel in Irvine.

Ladan most recently served as a litigator and employment attorney at a regional law firm, where she represented employers in a variety of matters, including wrongful termination, discrimination, harassment, as well as alleged violations of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, Title VII, and Title IX. At Fisher Phillips, Ladan joins the firm's growing California Litigation team, where she will continue to represent employers in complex labor and employment disputes while also providing advice and counseling on all aspects of their employment relationships.

Ladan earned her B.A. from the University of California, Irvine, and her J.D. from Loyola Law School, Los Angeles, where she served as the President of the Women's Law Association. She later served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Sandra Klein, B.A. of the United States Bankruptcy Court, Central District of California.
