Overview

Alexandra Volpicelli is an associate in the firm's San Francisco office and advises clients on a variety of labor and employment matters.

Prior to joining Fisher Phillips, Alexandra interned with the in-house legal team of an international manufacturing and distributing nutritional supplement company and handled a range of legal issues affecting the company, among them employment and regulatory matters.

Alexandra graduated from University of California College of the Law, San Francisco (formerly known as UC Hastings) where she obtained a concentration in intellectual property law. She was selected as an IP Section Reporter at the California Lawyers Association.

She was the Senior Editor of the Business Law Journal. Alexandra also gained valuable experience in law school working for Dean Faigman, Chancellor and Dean, as his research assistant.

Alexandra received her bachelor's degree from New York University where she studied business and politics.
