Overview

Madeleine Nadeau represents employers in various workplace-related matters, including providing day-to-day advice and reviewing and drafting employment agreements and handbooks.

Prior to joining Fisher Phillips, Madeleine was an associate for a multi-practice law firm where she focused on employment law, personal injury, construction law, intellectual property law, and public contracting.

During law school, Madeleine worked as a Judicial Extern for the Honorable Jill L. Burkhardt of the U.S. District Court, Southern District of California. She also served as an intern for the Office of the City Attorney of San Diego, Civil Division where she garnered experience in key areas of risk management and trial preparation.
