The Fisher Phillips AI Workplace Forum is the nation's preeminent space focusing on the intersection of AI and all things employment – the singular place where innovative business leaders will get the news on how AI will be impacting their operations. Join our next biweekly 30-minute rapid-fire session to hear firm leaders discuss the latest AI trends and breaking news.

Up for discussion this week: You might feel intimidated trying to learn what feels like a whole new language while trying to wrap your head about all things AI. We've got you covered! This interactive session will review the most common words, phrases, and acronyms you might hear when discussing AI, and will also help you put them into context. You'll be a step closer to AI mastery at the end of this practical session.

The firm will submit this program for HRCI and SHRM credit.
