The 2024 legislative year in California was another busy one, introducing a wave of critical updates that every employer needs to understand. Fisher Phillips invites you to join us for an informative seminar covering important California legislative and legal updates that will affect agricultural employers in 2025 and beyond with an overview of important new laws impacting workplace policies, compliance, and employee management.

The California Legislature has remained busy by enacting new legislation for 2025 that greatly impacts employers of all sizes. This webinar will analyze significant new legislation that will affect California employers in the new year. You'll learn how to protect your operations, plan, and be ahead of the game.

The firm is submitting this webinar for HRCI/SHRM credit.
