

Labor Relations Vice Chair Discusses Anticipated Shift in DOL's Direction

News
3.06.25

In an interview with The American Lawyer, Joshua Nadreau shares how the new U.S. Labor Department Secretary might impact the business of law based on the new administration's priorities and to what extent they're going to roll back rules issued by the Biden administration.

To read the article visit The American Lawyer (subscription required).

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.

Related People

Joshua D. Nadreau
Regional Managing Partner and Vice Chair, Labor Relations Group
617.722.0044
Email

Service Focus

Labor Relations

Trending

New Administration Resource Center for Employers

Related Offices

Boston