

Daily Report Highlights Geographic and Practice-Focused Growth Behind Fisher Phillips' Double-Digit Revenue Increase

News

3.27.25

In an interview with the Daily Report, John Polson, Fisher Phillips' Chairman and Managing Partner, discusses the "strong demand" for employment services in key markets like California and in practices like Workplace Safety and Labor Relations in 2024, which led to increased revenue for the third year in a row. In the annual interview regarding the firm's strategic growth, John provides a breakdown of which practice areas and office locations saw the most engagement and touches on some of the firm's emerging practices like Crisis Communications, International Employment and Agriculture.

To read the article visit Daily Report (subscription required).

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.

Related People

John M. Polson
Chairman & Managing Partner
949.798.2130
Email