Overview

Corey Watkins, an associate in Fisher Phillips' Sacramento office, represents businesses in a variety of employment law disputes. In all cases, he prioritizes forging relationships with clients so that he can more effectively anticipate and address their unique needs.

Before joining Fisher Phillips, Corey was an associate at a civil litigation firm where, as a member of the medical malpractice group, he handled cases from the pre-litigation stage through trial.

While in law school, Corey completed a legal externship with the California Department of Managed Health Care (DMHC) in Sacramento and was responsible for interacting with health plans in connection with consumer grievances.

He received his law degree, with distinction, from the University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law.
