

Fisher Phillips Welcomes Frank Martinez in New York

News

4.07.25

Fisher Phillips, an international labor and employment law firm representing employers, is pleased to announce that Frank Martinez has joined the firm as Partner in the New York office. Frank joins from Prada USA, the global luxury retail brand, where he was Senior Vice President, General Counsel for the Americas.

At Prada, Frank helped lead the organization in navigating global legal risk, including overseeing a team that provided in-house advice in the key areas of employment, commercial contracts, litigation, real estate, corporate, retail operations, privacy, immigration, insurance and regulatory compliance. Before joining Prada, he was at LVMH where he built a strong network and credibility within the luxury fashion sector. He previously owned and managed his own law firm, where he had a diverse employment law practice representing both management and employees. His extensive labor and employment experience includes advising clients on compliance, preventative practices, employee relations, handbooks, contracts, executive compensation, discrimination, harassment, disability, non-competition agreements, and other employment-related matters.

"Frank brings a unique and powerful blend of litigation prowess, crisis management acumen, and knowledge of the fashion industry to our firm," said Michael Marra, Co-Regional Managing Partner of the Fisher Phillips New York office. "His ability to provide strategic counsel across a wide range of employment matters, from complex disputes to executive compensation, is truly exceptional and his understanding of client needs and client service is extraordinary. I have had the pleasure of knowing Frank for 25 years, and he is also just generally a wonderful person, so I know he will be an excellent fit with our team."

At Fisher Phillips, Frank will assist clients with workplace investigations, leaves and accommodations, employee relations, crisis management, international mobility, litigation, employee policies, compensation, and wage and hour practices. He will work with the firm's established New York team to expand the firm's Retail industry offerings and provide comprehensive labor and employment solutions tailored to the unique challenges of that sector.

Frank earned his J.D. from Boston University, a Master of Music from the University of Massachusetts, Amherst and a Bachelor of Music degree from Indiana University, Bloomington.
