

25th Annual Georgia Association of Health Underwriters Convention

Event

8.21.15

Join us for the 25th Annual Georgia Association of Health Underwriters Convention in beautiful Jekyll Island to learn about the latest issues in health care mandates and structuring of employee benefits programs. This event brings together insurance underwriters, human resources professionals, and benefits specialists to learn from each other and an impressive array of speakers. Programs will present innovative ways to provide guidance in this new and endlessly changing landscape of health insurance.

Jennifer Sandberg and Lorie Maring, attorneys at Fisher Phillips, will present the following topics at the convention.

- Adding Value to the Client Relationship: Conversation Starters for Key Employment & Employee Benefit Issues
A review of major issues currently faced by all Human Resources departments.
Presented by Jennifer Sandberg and Lorie Maring
- The Affordable Care Act: Recent Guidance and Implementation Challenges
Presented by Lorie Maring
- Wearable Technology!! Employment Risks??
Presented by Jennifer Sandberg

Dates:

Thursday, August 20 – Friday, August 21, 2015

Location:

The Westin Jekyll Island & Convention Center
110 Ocean Way, Jekyll Island
Jekyll Island, GA 31527

Cost:

Human Resources professionals will be offered tickets for a discounted rate of $175.

Click here to register!

The Georgia Association of Health Underwriters is a professional organization of agents, administrators and insurance company representatives who have joined together to strengthen the private health care financing marketplace for all Americans.

This program is eligible for HRCI and SHRM credits.*

Related People

Lorie Maring
Partner
404.240.4225
Email

Jennifer B. Sandberg
Regional Managing Partner
Email