12:00 PM - 1:00 PM EST

In the first part, the speakers will discuss the legal issues that arise relating to volunteers, contractors, interns, and summer camp workers, including under Wage Hour and other important laws. In the second part of the presentation, we will discuss “must have” and “should have” policies for your handbooks to ensure that you have the policies necessary from a legal standard, to protect the School from claims, and to provide flexibility to manage your employment processes.
